The Schemes

22. Beginning as early as October 2021, MILLER, aided and abetted by D.D. and other individuals both known and unknown to law enforcement, conceived and perpetrated two fraudulent schemes to bolster his businesses' monthly cash flow and to pay unrelated personal and professional debts, obligations, and expenses:

- a. The Bear Lute Scheme: A scheme to defraud investors by inducing them to invest in a pooled real estate investment vehicle, "Bear Lute," through material misrepresentations, false promises, and omissions about, inter alia, the prior performance of Bear Lute, the validity of the investors' security interest, the safety of the investment, MILLER's financial status, the timeline for return of funds, and the purpose for which the funds would be used; and then by misappropriating the funds for unrelated personal and business expenses.

- b. The Direct Investment Scheme: A scheme to defraud investors by inducing them to invest in specific real estate projects, "direct investments," located on Bigley Avenue in Charleston, Kanawha County, West Virginia, through material misrepresentations, false promises, and omissions about, inter alia, the validity of the investors' security interest, the safety of the investment, MILLER's financial status, and the purpose for which the funds would be used; and then by misappropriating the funds for unrelated personal and business expenses.

The Bear Lute Scheme

23. MILLER controlled a real estate investment program, "Bear Lute," which was affiliated with Bear Industries LLC. As part of Bear Lute, investors gave MILLER money to invest in real estate properties on the promise that they would achieve an extraordinary rate of return over a period of months or years. Bear Lute was administered primarily through bearlute.com.

24. MILLER promoted Bear Lute through social media, where he had amassed a large following. He regularly posted videos and other information promoting Bear Lute and directed viewers to bearlute.com.

25. As of September 10, 2024, bearlute.com contained the following representations regarding the program and MILLER, among others:¹

Bear Lute Victims E.S. & B.W.

35. On or about August 14, 2022, victim B.W. signed up for Bear Lute after viewing bearlute.com. He began making monthly investments of $2,500, in reliance on MILLER's misrepresentations and promises about Bear Lute, some of which appeared on bearlute.com.

36. B.W.'s deposits were deducted from his bank account in Texas, processed by Paypal, and deposited in MILLER's bank account ending in 5154 in the name of T&C Construction LLC at Fifth Third in Charleston, West Virginia, on the following dates: August 15, 2022, September 15, 2022, October 13, 2022, November 20, 2022, and December 12, 2022.

37. On or about October 12, 2022, E.S. signed up for Bear Lute after viewing bearlute.com. He made a one-time deposit of $5,000, in reliance on THEODORE MILLER's representations and promises about Bear Lute, some of which appeared on bearlute.com.

38. E.S.'s deposit was deducted from his bank account in Texas, processed by Paypal, and deposited in THEODORE MILLER's bank account ending in 5154 in the name of T&C Construction LLC at Fifth Third in Charleston, West Virginia. E.S.'s money was deducted in two $2,500 increments on or about October 13 and 14 of 2022.

39. Nearly all of MILLER's representations and promises about Bear Lute on bearlute.com were untrue.

40. Based on a review of financial records, investor funds were not pooled and deployed on real estate projects or transactions as described. Rather, as the Bear Lute funds were available, MILLER used the funds to his and D.D.'s personal benefit and to the benefit of MILLER's other businesses.

41. MILLER did not perform any cash out refinances on properties that would have generated returns in excess of 6 percent for Bear Lute investors.

42. The returns and quarterly distributions investors could view in the investor dashboard were not based on any real account figures. While the investor dashboard showed investments "growing," MILLER's businesses' total available cash was consistently decreasing.

43. MILLER did not honor withdraw requests within 60 days. Specifically, MILLER never returned B.W.'s and E.S.'s investments after they made withdraw requests.

44. MILLER also failed to disclose to investors, including B.W. and E.S., that the West Virginia Securities Commission ordered him to cease and desist operating Bear Lute in or around November of 2022.

45. MILLER ceased all communications with investors E.S. and B.W. after they made requests for withdrawal.

The Direct Investment Scheme

46. From at least June 3, 2022, through at least September 8, 2022, at or near Charleston, Kanawha County, West Virginia, within the Southern District of West Virginia, and elsewhere, MILLER, aided and abetted by individuals both known and unknown to law enforcement, knowingly participated in a scheme to defraud real estate project investors, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343.

47. In furtherance of the fraud, MILLER carried out the scheme in the following manner:

The Dry-Storage Lot Project: Victims C.T. & J.C.

48. In the spring of 2022, MILLER began soliciting investments for a project to construct a dry-storage lot at "1017" and 1019 Bigley Avenue, and to make improvements to a home located at 1021 Bigley Avenue in Charleston, West Virginia (the "dry-storage lot project").

49. He solicited investments, in part, by posting videos on his social media accounts, where he also regularly misrepresented himself as a successful, wealthy businessman.

50. From approximately July 5, 2022, to July 20, 2022, MILLER, aided and abetted by individuals known and unknown to law enforcement, fraudulently induced investments totaling $60,000 in the dry-storage lot project from two investors: $20,000 from C.T. and $40,000 from J.C.

51. MILLER provided C.T. with a project prospectus in or around June 2022. The prospectus falsely promised, inter alia, that:

- a. MILLER would rehabilitate a small dwelling located at 1021 Bigley Avenue.
- b. MILLER would construct a dry-storage lot at 1017 and 1019 Bigley Avenue, between 1007 Bigley Avenue and 1021 Bigley Avenue. Construction of the dry-storage lot would include clearing, leveling, and graveling the lot and installing a fence and security system.
- c. MILLER would treat an investment as a construction loan to complete the project. If MILLER could not raise the total capital needed, $185,826.84, MILLER would allow investors to redirect their investment.
- d. Once construction was complete, MILLER would refinance the property, and investors would receive their initial investment back, plus an additional return. After, investors and MILLER would share in the rental income from the dwelling and dry-storage lot.

56. After C.T. reviewed the prospectus, MILLER misrepresented to C.T. during a phone call that he controlled the limited liability company that owned the dry-storage lot project property. MILLER made other misrepresentations to C.T. in one-on-one communications designed to induce C.T.'s investment.

57. C.T. ultimately decided to invest $20,000 in the dry-storage lot project. C.T. and MILLER entered into an "Investor Agreement" and a "Partnership Agreement" in June 2022. The Investor Agreement falsely promised that C.T.'s funds would be used for the dry-storage lot project property only, that C.T.'s investment was secured by the dry-storage lot project property, and that MILLER would repay C.T. $20,000 plus 15 percent of the refinance proceeds by August 2, 2023. The Partnership Agreement governed how rental income would later be divided.

58. C.T. then wired $20,000 from California to MILLER on or about July 5, 2022. The wire was deposited into MILLER's Bear Industries LLC Fifth Third bank account ending in 5311 in Charleston, West Virginia.

59. C.T.'s wire was sent in reliance on MILLER's false promises and misrepresentations in the prospectus, the Investor Agreement, during the phone call, in one-on-one communications, in the Partnership Agreement, and on social media.

60. Defendant THEODORE MILLER provided J.C. with the same project prospectus between June and July of 2022.

61. MILLER provided J.C. with additional investment materials related to the dry-storage lot project in July 2022. The additional materials misrepresented, inter alia, that investor money would be used as a down payment on a construction loan.

62. J.C. decided to invest $40,000 in the project. He wired $20,000 from Florida to MILLER on or about July 19, 2022. He wired another $20,000 from Florida to MILLER on or about July 20, 2022. The wires were deposited into MILLER's Bear Industries LLC Fifth Third bank account ending in 5311 in Charleston, West Virginia.

63. J.C.'s wires were sent in reliance on MILLER's false promises and misrepresentations in the prospectus, the additional materials, and on social media.

64. Upon receiving the investments, MILLER did not do as he had promised. MILLER did not rehabilitate the home at 1021 Bigley Avenue; construct a dry-storage lot; give C.T. or J.C. an opportunity to redirect their investment when he did not raise the total capital requirement; refinance the property; or pay investors.

65. Additionally, at the time of the investments, MILLER was not in a strong financial position.

66. MILLER also never owned the dry-storage lot project property, as represented. Therefore, C.T. could never have had a valid security interest therein. Nor could MILLER have ever owned "1017" Bigley Avenue, as it was not a valid address.

67. MILLER did not use the entirety of the investors' funds for the dry-storage lot project. Nor did he use the investments as a down payment on a construction loan. Instead, MILLER put most of the funds to his own and D.D.'s benefit, directing the money toward personal expenses, private investments, and other business expenses.

68. In furtherance of the scheme, MILLER sent J.C. and C.T. lulling communications. For example, in March 2023, knowing full-well that he had not completed the dry-storage lot project, MILLER told J.C. that J.C. would receive his first project disbursement at the end of the next month and to expect that his disbursements would increase "as the site fills up." J.C. never received a disbursement.

69. In furtherance of the scheme, MILLER ceased all contact with C.T. and J.C. after they began inquiring further about the dry-storage lot project.

The Duplex Projects: Victims J.C. & B.W.

70. In or around Spring of 2022, and while MILLER was promoting the dry-storage lot project, MILLER began soliciting investments for the development of duplexes located at 915 and 917 Bigley Avenue, Charleston, Kanawha County, West Virginia, the ("915 Bigley duplex project" and the "917 Bigley duplex project").

71. He solicited investments, in part, by posting videos on his social media accounts, where he also regularly misrepresented himself as a successful, wealthy businessman.

72. From approximately July 14, 2022, to September 8, 2022, MILLER fraudulently induced investments totaling $30,000 in the duplex projects from two investors: $20,000 from J.C. for the 915 Bigley duplex project and $10,000 from B.W for the 917 Bigley duplex project.

73. In June 2022, MILLER provided investment materials regarding the 915 Bigley duplex project to J.C. The materials included, inter alia, the following misrepresentations, and false promises and information:

- a. MILLER would redevelop the single-family residence located at 915 Bigley Avenue into a fully remodeled duplex.
- b. MILLER would use the investment funds for a down payment on a construction loan.
- c. Construction of the duplex would involve installing modern kitchens, hardwood flooring, modern bathrooms, and brushed nickel lighting.
- d. After construction was complete, MILLER would rent the duplex units and refinance the property. Upon refinance, the investors' funds would be returned plus a portion of the increased equity.
- e. The investment was "safe and secure" because the investment would be personally guaranteed by MILLER and secured by the duplex property.

74. MILLER also provided J.C. with a property report for 915 Bigley Avenue that included projections for the project and technical specifications for the property.

75. Between June and July of 2022, MILLER made numerous misrepresentations to J.C. during one-on-one communications designed to induce J.C.'s investment.

76. J.C. decided to invest $20,000 in the 915 Bigley duplex project. On July 14, 2022, J.C. and MILLER entered into an "Investor Agreement" and a "Partnership Agreement." The Investor Agreement misrepresented that J.C.'s investment was secured by 915 Bigley Avenue, and falsely promised that MILLER would repay J.C. $20,000 plus additional money from the refinance by July 24, 2024. The Partnership Agreement governed how rental income would later be divided.

77. J.C. wired $20,000 from Florida to MILLER on or about July 14, 2022. The wire was deposited into defendant THEODORE MILLER's Bear Industries LLC Fifth Third bank account ending in 5311 in Charleston, West Virginia.

78. J.C.'s wire was sent in reliance on MILLER's false promises and misrepresentations contained in the investment materials, their one-on-one communications, the Investor Agreement, the Partnership Agreement, and on social media.

79. In or around September 2022, MILLER provided investment information regarding the 917 Bigley duplex project to B.W. The information included, inter alia, the following misrepresentations and false promises and information:

- a. MILLER would use the investment to redevelop the single-family residence located at 917 Bigley Avenue into a fully remodeled duplex;
- b. Construction of the duplex would involve a total remodel;
- c. After construction was complete, MILLER would rent the duplex units and refinance the property. Investors would receive quarterly distributions and upon refinance, the investors' funds would be returned plus a portion of the increased equity;

- d. The investment was "safe" because the investment would be personally guaranteed by MILLER and secured by the duplex property, a tangible asset; and
- e. MILLER owned a "large amount" of rental property near 917 Bigley Avenue.

80. B.W. decided to invest $10,000 in the 917 Bigley duplex project. On September 7, 2022, B.W. and MILLER entered into an "Investor Agreement" and a "Partnership Agreement." The Investor Agreement falsely promised that B.W.'s funds would be used for the 917 Bigley Avenue duplex only, that B.W.'s investment was secured by 917 Bigley Avenue, and that MILLER would repay J.C. $10,000 plus additional money from the refinance by September 7, 2024. The Partnership Agreement governed how rental income would later be divided.

81. B.W. wired $10,000 from Texas to MILLER on or about September 8, 2022. The wire was deposited into MILLER's Bear Industries LLC Fifth Third bank account ending in 5311 in Charleston, West Virginia.

82. B.W.'s wire was sent in reliance on MILLER's false promises and misrepresentations in the investment information, the Investor Agreement, the Partnership Agreement, and on social media.

83. At the time of the investments, MILLER was not in a strong financial position.

84. Additionally, MILLER did not do as he had promised. He did not remodel the homes at 915 and 917 Bigley Avenue, and he never refinanced the properties or paid investors.

85. Further, MILLER never owned 915 or 917 Bigley Avenue, as represented. Therefore, B.W. could never have had a valid security interest therein. MILLER also never owned a "large amount" of rental property near 915 or 917 Bigley Avenue.

86. MILLER did not use the entirety of the investors' funds for the duplex projects. Nor did he use the investments as a down payment on a construction loan. Instead, MILLER put most of the funds toward his own and D.D.'s benefit, directing the money to personal expenses, private investments, and other business expenses.

88. In furtherance of the scheme, MILLER ceased all contact with J.C. and B.W. after they began inquiring further about the duplex projects.

Account Analysis

89. MILLER received a total of approximately $434,501.42 from his fraudulent schemes.

STATUTORY BASIS FOR SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE

94. 18 U.S.C. § 981(b) provides, in relevant part, that any property, real or personal, which represents or is traceable to the gross receipts obtained, directly or indirectly, or any facilitating property involved in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343 are subject to civil forfeiture to the United States Government.

95. 21 U.S.C. § 853(e) & (f) by 28 U.S.C. § 2461 provides, in relevant part, that any property, real or personal, involved in or facilitating, or any property traceable to such property involved in a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343 shall be forfeited to the United States.

96. 21 U.S.C. § 853(e) & (f) by 18 U.S.C. § 982(b)(1) provides, in relevant part, that any property, real or personal, involved in or facilitating, or any property traceable to such property involved in a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1957 shall be forfeited to the United States.

97. 18, U.S.C. § 981(b)(1) authorizes seizure of property subject to civil forfeiture based upon a warrant supported by probable cause. 18, U.S.C. § 981(b)(3) permits the issuance of a seizure warrant by a judicial officer in any district in which a forfeiture action against the property may be filed and may be executed in any district in which the property is found.

SEIZURE PROCEDURE

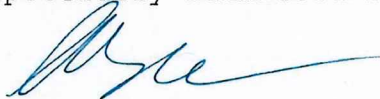

99. Upon execution of the seizure warrants, Fifth Third and Evolve Bank shall be directed to restrain and lock the Subject Bank Accounts pending transfer of all right, title, and interest in the Subject Bank Accounts to the United States upon completion of forfeiture proceedings to ensure that changes to the Subject Bank Accounts cannot be made absent court order or, if forfeited to the United States, without prior consultation with the FBI and/or the United States Department of Justice.

CONCLUSION

101. Based on the information contained in this affidavit, I submit that there is probable cause to believe that the Subject Bank Accounts are property that have been used, or are intended to be used, to commit or facilitate wire fraud and money laundering. Accordingly, the Subject Bank Accounts are subject to civil forfeiture and criminal forfeiture.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
